ROSEWATER 0.2 3.2 6.2 7.5 (47)
 KENILWORTH 5.5 9.7 16.9 22.12 (144)
 This was another disappointing match. The selected side looked good - but with many changes to what was on paper, and it did not eventuate, and again we fronted with a team put together at the last moment. However it was, on paper, a much stronger side than what we fronted with on the occasion of our first round encounter. To come second by the margin we did takes a little getting used to. We got away to a poor start. Only two points registered in the first quarter was ominous for the remainder of the game. In fact their speed and team play turned us inside out on many occasions. Our usual good players were gathering their usual numbers of possessions but overall we just did not have the firepower to combat what was a much slicker team. Poor decisions and turn-overs counted against us and put huge pressure on the over-worked backlines.

In the second quarter we got on the board with three goals. And we did look to put a bit of pressure on - but Kenilworth responded and outscored us by 8 points for the quarter. The third saw a bit of an avalanche with 7.2 to two goals leaving us a big margin at the last change. The final quarter was a real "blow-out". 6.3 to 1.2 told the story. We again chased and when in possession, more often than not, could not penetrate to the forwards to score ourselves. In all it was a disappointing day.
 Best: over.

I start a new job in Seoul next week.
 I thought it was a good Korea move.

A Grade: Best: 1. Josh Vines is having a purple patch. Runs himself into the ground getting the ball and chasing the opposition. But needs support. 2. Scott Jacobsen rebounded in his customary straight line style, but too was swamped by opposition attacks. 3. Brad Taheny gets the ball more often than most others and runs all game. Racks up possessions but we cannot turn his possessions into goals. 4. Joel Pettersson again with another good game in defence - but he too was under too much pressure. 5. Hugh Johnson-Schroeder had a lot of possessions on his wing/half forward. Others to do well included Adam Rumbelow, James Carson, Tyson Thomas and Shane Gates was active off the bench, as was Mark Rothwell (after a game in the B's coming on to cover a late withdrawal). Brad Horsell was again a marking target at full forward - but unusually off target two weeks in a row! Ben Hall had touches as did Chris Forster and James Grant. Goals: Horsell 3, Ben Hall, Adam Rumbelow, Brad Taheny, James Grant - all one.

B Grade: Rosewater 1.1 Kenilworth - plenty!

A game where we were outclassed by a much more proficient team. We lacked numbers and with players not available for both the A grade and this team we took to the field without the luxury of interchange players. Such is the situation when you are not winning and the players who turn up each week are to be congratulated on their fortitude and support for the club. When we move into the new premises perhaps our numbers will increase and consolidate to provide a consistent base of players from which to pick both our B grade and support the A grade. Our only goal scorer was Brad Kenny who grabbed the ball in the third quarter and with dash ran it forward and split the uprights from some distance out. It was a good individual effort.

While we were overrun we had many players who tried very hard:
Best: 1. Brad Twartz is a stand-out player. He is 'A' grade material and hopefully next season with the ability to train he (and his brother) will add a lot to our first team. 2. Alex Shaw is one of our best. 100% all the time and never gives up. His endeavour all over the ground, for the entire game, is first class. A great effort and will give the Best and Fairest a real shake. 3. Robbie Cains has the nous and the ability and is one of the "generals" of the club. 4. Mark Rothwell has improved out of sight. Now taps on the door of A grade selection (and in fact did move to the bench for the A's later - due to late withdrawals). 5. Jarrad Moore continues to defend with a cool competence, repelling with precision. Others to do well included John Murray, Keith Weetra, Nidhin Narayana and Adam Purvis. Brian Reid took a couple of good marks. James Purnell suffered a leg injury and exposed our lack of reserves. But well done to those who put in on behalf of the Club!

A mate of mine admitted to being addicted to brake fluid. When I quizzed him on it he reckoned he could stop any time
